

TEN
COMMANDMENTS
...of a home loan

Please DO NOT...

1. Change jobs, become self-employed, or quit your job
2. Spend money that is set aside for closing
3. Originate any inquiries on credit, this includes applying for store credit cards in order to receive a discount even if you do not intend on opening the account
4. Change bank accounts
5. Leave out any debts and liabilities from your loan application
6. Co-sign on a loan for someone
7. Use any of your credit cards excessively or let current accounts fall behind
8. Buy any furniture on credit
9. Make large deposits into any of your accounts without checking with your loan officer
10. Make any changes to your situation without speaking to your loan officer

When in doubt, always speak to your loan officer with any questions or concerns that may arise. Communication is key to ensuring a smooth closing of your loan

Sincerely,

GENERAL MORTGAGE CAPITAL CORPORATION